

AT THE THEATERS

This Week at The Theaters and Parks

ELKS—Stock company season opens with "Peg O' My Heart" next Friday night.

COLUMBIA—Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Mack Sennett's comedy feature "Married Life." Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "The River's End."

STRAND—Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jack London's famous story, "The Sea Wolf," with a comedy and Pathe News. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Lew Cody in "The Butterfly Man," with Fox News, comedy, and Paramount magazine.

THE HIP—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Buck Jones in "Forbidden Trails," Texas Guinan, and Mutt and Jeff. Wednesday and Thursday, Frank Mayo in "The Peddler of Lions." Friday and Saturday, selected feature and western.

RAMONA—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Tom Mix in "The Daredevil." Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "The Silent Avenger," and Anita Stewart in "The Combat." Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "The Toreador," said to be the only genuine film of a Spanish bullfight to reach this country, with Eddie Polo in "The Vanishing Dagger."

RIVERSIDE—Dancing Sunday afternoon and evening and each night, special feature, swimming and concessions.

AMERICAN DANCING ACADEMY—Opens Wednesday night.

"FORBIDDEN TRAILS" WITH BUCK JONES IS HIP'S OFFERING

Buck Jones, the screen's newest find and the man who in a single picture jumped to the class of leaders in western characterizations, comes to the Hip to play a three days' engagement starting today, in "Forbidden Trails."

As "Squint" Taylor, owner of the Arrow ranch, Buck Jones has received a bequest from a dying life long friend through which he has inherited the friend's daughter, Marion. He has never seen the girl, but he has learned from her father that she is the owner of valuable property, and that this property is being sought by a certain gang of schemers. Taylor promises to care for the girl, and the friend passes away.

Taylor immediately starts out to find the girl he has never seen, and fate plays right into his hands, for on the same train he runs into three men and gleams from their whispered conversation that they know considerable of Marion. Taylor decided to return home, and start on a new course. He has, in the meantime, been elected sheriff of the county, and is ready to take the oath of office. An attempted train robbery nipped in the bud by the sheriff places Marion in his hands, for she is a passenger on the train, and while Taylor does not know the identity of the girl, he is strangely attracted to her. When he attempts to take his oath of office, the teeth of the schemers are shown, for the leader, a respected citizen of the town, and the man who is seeking by hook or crook to gain control of the section, attempts to block Taylor's taking the oath. A fight is the result, and Taylor wins. Then it is war to the death, with the girl and her fortune as the stake for the winner.

Texas Guinan, feminine rodeo champion, finishes out the program in "Not Guilty," while Mutt and Jeff in "One Round Jeff" furnish the comedy.

JACK LONDON STORY "THE SEA WOLF" IS STRAND ATTRACTION

Jack London's famous novel "The Sea Wolf" made by George H. Melford into a Paramount-Artcraft special and presenting such favorites as Tom Forman, Raymond Hatton, James Gordon, Fred Hunter, Noah Beery, Mabel Julienne Scott and Eddie Sutherland, comes to the Strand today starting an engagement which will extend over Wednesday.

"The Sea Wolf" lends itself admirably to the silent drama, and in the hands of such a genius as George H. Melford it becomes a vivid drama of love and adventure, staged amid all the force of Jack London's style and

ANOTHER BIG SHIPMENT OF

The Brunswick
ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

Phonographs Soon Will Arrive

You will eventually own a Brunswick

Ask Cass Redewill Why

226 West Washington Street

rested by Fred Barlow, will present as an overture before each show the opera score of "William Tell," and Mr. Singletary's selection will be the song: "Hold Me."

Other features on an attractive program are a Mutt and Jeff cartoon, a snub Pollard comedy and a Bray Pictograph.

DIVING, SWIMMING, DANCING FEATURES AT RIVERSIDE PARK

Today will prove another big day at Riverside Park.

The pool will center interest with the patrons this afternoon, for several novel stunts will be staged. Diving exhibitions will occupy a prominent position on the lineup, as will swimming races, endurance races, handicap events, races for the little boys and girls, events for ladies as well as gentlemen, and of course Bob Orsiniago, the Phoenix Houdini, will thrill with his exhibition of skill in releasing himself from handcuffs, ropes, chains and other restraining devices while in the water. This act is as clever an exhibition as has ever been staged in the city. Working along the same lines as the world famed Harry Houdini, Orsiniago's program consists of many of the same features. He is bound, or chained, or both, pitched into the water, and in a remarkably short time emerges from the depths, freed from the shackles and holding them in his hand.

The afternoon dance will of course be conducted, as will the dance in the evening, when King Brady and his jazz band will hold forth. The Riverside Park refreshment service is still maintained with all its efficiency, which means that the best in material and sanitation are paramount features of the refreshment end of the park season.

During the week, Diamond ring nights will be repeated, as will the old time dance evenings, and several other features to be announced. Cinderella Night is an attraction to be featured in the very near future.

Scene from Mack Sennett's "Married Life"

Coming to the Columbia today for a four-day engagement

THEATRICAL SEASON TO BEGIN AT ELKS NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

The theatrical season for 1920-21 will be ushered in on Friday night at the Elks theater when the new stock company opens with Laurette Taylor's greatest vehicle "Peg O' My Heart."

Ray F. Brandon has been for several weeks on the coast personally selecting the cast for the coming season, and promises an organization that will in every way measure up to the high standard established in previous seasons. The company is headed by Miss Audra Alden and by special arrangement with Oliver Morosco "Peg O' My Heart" has been secured for the first time for Phoenix.

Irish plays have always held a paramount element of appeal for the play-

NOAH BEERY and EDDIE SUTHERLAND in a scene from GEORGE H. MELFORD'S production "THE SEA WOLF" A PARAMOUNT ARTCRAFT PICTURE

Jack London's great romance, made into a stirring motion picture, which starts at the Strand this afternoon.

The seat sale opens at the Elks box office Tuesday. The first road show of the coming season will be George White's "Scan- dals of 1919," coming to the Elks office Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 23, 24 and 25, with a big cast of the Strand's musical comedy favorites.

ELKS Theater

Brandon Bros., Mgrs.
717-Phone-717

Season Opens
Friday, Sept. 17

Laurette Taylor's Greatest
Starring Vehicle—
The Everlasting
Irish Comedy

By special Arrangement
With,
Oliver Morosco

"PEG O' MY HEART"

Specially Selected Cast
With AUDRA ALDEN as "Peg"

Prices 85c, 55c, 30c Including War Tax Seat Sale Tues., Sept. 14, 9 A. M.

RICKARDS & NACE ENTERPRISES

STRAND

100% Picture Plus
100% Music Equals
200% Entertainment

STARTS TODAY

Revealing in all its realism and excitement the greatest story ever written of the sea, the production will amaze with its vivid action, and its terrific climaxes, while the subtle power of Jack London to write real human romance is accentuated through the master strokes of this genius of direction.

A Picture that Lives the Story

Comedy:
"MONKEY BUSINESS"
PATHE NEWS

Theme, "Whispering," Schonberger; Tete-a-Tete, DeKoven; Legende, Frime; Romance, Rubenstein; Homeward, Grieg; Romance in F, Tschaiwsky; Serenade, Channade. ORCHESTRA PLAYS EVERY AFTERNOON AND EVENING R. L. ADAMS, Conducting

MUSICAL PROGRAM STRAND SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

THE HIP

SUN., MON., TUES.
BUCK JONES

The Screen's Latest Sensation in "FORBIDDEN TRAILS"

Added
TEXAS GUINAN in
"NOT GUILTY"

RAMONA

SUN., MON., TUES.
TOM MIX

In without question the greatest thriller he has ever made, "THE DAREDEVIL" Starting Wednesday "THE TOREADOR" the genuine bull fight pictures from Madrid.

RIVERSIDE

Dancing Sunday
Afternoon and Evening
WATER SPORTS
TODAY
AT THE POOL

EVERYBODY'S HAPPY

THE AMERICAN DANCING ACADEMY

WILL OPEN

Wednesday, September 15

8:30 O'Clock

GENE'S NOVELTY JAZZ BAND

INCLUDING

GENE DABNEY,

Leader,

HENRY HALSTEAD,

Violin

FREDDIE GREEN,

Drums

NEW DECORATIONS

H. LIPNER,

Banjo

LEONARD STEVENS,

Piano

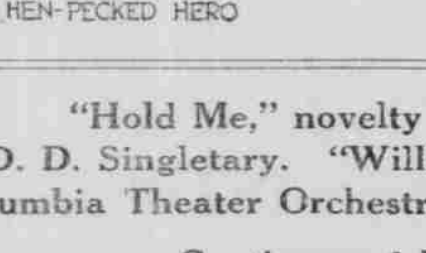

A. SINGER,

Saxophone

REFINISHED FLOOR

Coming Sunday for Four-Day Engagement

MARRIED LIFE

Mack Sennett's
Supreme Comedy
Achievement

5 Reels of Reckless Revelry

Guaranteed to cure
jealousy, restore confidence, re-awaken honeymoon
sentiments, allay
suspicion, remove doubt and promote conjugal happiness!

Positively NOT a WAR PICTURE!

Added Attractions:

Mutt and Jeff Cartoon
Bray Pictograph and
Snub Pollard Comedy

"Hold Me," novelty picture song, presented by D. D. Singletary. "William Tell" Overture by Columbia Theater Orchestra. Fred Barlow, Director.

Continuous 1 P. M. to 11 P. M.